

The Messenger of the Way of the Lord, October 2003

The Lord Jesus wants the works of faith, not a morbid religion

Previous crusade was to the Mount Kralicky Sneznik. There we proclaimed the blessing in the name of Jesus over Morava region and her people, also over the spring of the river Morava for the outpouring of the living water of the sanctifying spirit. The next move therefore was from the north border of Morava straight down to her south border in Mikulov. It was through her heart, the historical Capital City of Olomouc. It was as the spiritual cutting of Morava in the covenant and occupying this land for the kingdom of the Anointing Jesus, so that after cancelling the historical authority of a demonic religion there could come Revival in the outpouring of the Sanctifying Spirit. Mikulov is one of the main wine producing regions in Morava and thus we loosened up and blessed also her wine, apart from blessing the waters of Morava river. The saying of YHWH to Abraham was, "For all the land which you see, to you will I give it, and to your seed as long as you are concealing...Arise, walk through the land in the length of it and in the breadth of it; for I will give it to you" (Gen 13:15,17). This is also valid for those "begotten from above" in Jesus, for, "...if you are of the Anointing One, undoubtedly you are Abraham's seed and heirs according to the promise" (Gal 3:29). To this I will return later.

On Saturday the 20th of September we left for Mikulov, an important place in the history of the Jews in Morava. Mikulov is the gate into a South Morava from the border with Austria. There was a Jewish settlement since 14th century and Mikulov used to be a spiritual, cultural and political centre of Moravian Jewry. Since the mid 16th century it was a seat of Morava's Chief Rabbis. In the flourishing times there were 3500 Jews living in Mikulov, they had 12 Synagogues and prayer houses. Today there is only one left - the Upper Synagogue. On the western slope of the Castle there are only 90 houses left from the great Ghetto of 13,5 hectares. Exceptionally valuable cemetery has 4000 tombstones.

First we ascended the "Holy Hill" (Svaty Kopecek) - a 'binding' Catholic pilgrimage place since 1622 (supposedly without interruption). So between the shophar blowing we proclaimed pulling down of this demonic authority which prevents the people to take the truth of the Good Message of being "begotten from above" in Jesus. After descending back into Mikulov we were rewarded by flowers from the Sanctifying Spirit. We got into the conversation with two Kvetas (woman's name meaning 'flower'), who showed an interest in our shophar blowing. After some clarifying questions, senior Kveta bought a copy of the New Covenant and wanted to stay in contact in the future. It is always a blessing to see how the Lord confirms his plan for our works of faith.

Then we walked through the city - we blew shophars at the Jewish Cemetery and at the Goat's Hill, for the forgiveness of sins of the people of this city (for what they did against Jews) and for the outpouring of the Sanctifying Spirit. Then we blew shophars in the Synagogue (next page) which was again a great blessing in a long time resonating sound of shophars. I was aware of the spiritual power of this calling of the blood of the lamb (on ram's horn), that Yeshua came through the nation of Israel to implore them first and to remind his people not to forget to be SANCTIFYING to the nation and to the land they came to. We realize that the shophar blowing and proclaiming has much more significance than we are able to perceive.

After going through the Jewish Quarter we walked around and through the Castle (as the former place of authority) which we also blew through, in the same way as at the Catholic places.

From here we drove to Ivancice, where we managed to catch the sunset at the Jewish Cemetery. This we experienced a few times already - the shining of the sunset at the Jewish Cemetery is as if the glory of God manifested during reading the God's Word over the place with Hebrew writings engraved into the stones in a similar way the Sayings of God are spiritually engraved into the hearts of men. There were also rows of special stone memorials for local victims of the Holocaust - and the shophars' blowing for the repentance from the sins of the people against the Jews and for the imploration of the living to the Sanctifying One of Israel was exceptionally powerful. After this we blew shophars at the unused and deserted local Synagogue which just emphasizes the sad state of the Czech nation - all these cities "are dead", as they say. There are no Jews in them to whom we could personally apologize for our forefathers evil done to them and bless them in the name of the Anointing Jesus (Yeshua HaMashiah), their Saviour. The majority of those surviving the Holocaust left this land. In the whole of the Czech Republic there are only about 3000 registered Jews, so they do not use most Synagogues anymore and these are usually in the ownership of the Hussites or Evangelical Churches, sometimes of the City Council, thus being used as galleries.

(modlarstvi) is used. For instance almost none of the scholars would use the word "prayer statueism" (modlarstvi) for the ceremony of worshipping the skull of "Saint" Wenceslas (well, if only it is his skull). Therefore almost none of them sees that for the Czech nation Patron Wenceslas is THE IDOL or the "prayer statue"! Therefore he is being worshipped not only by mindless religious fanatics but also by the whole Czech intellectual elite including the members of the official Czech Government. For instance in the newspaper DNES (TODAY) on 27th of September 2003 there was a column by the historian Martin C. Putna with the title "Saint Wenceslas rules us". He

It is interesting that majority of people, when seeing "Jesus is Lord" written over our T-shirts, look at us with disdain, almost offended because they do not care about Jesus - as typical "Czech Christians" don't. This is so because of the "Christian" tradition - for it has nothing in common with Jesus at all! Why there is a need to pull down demons of this religion? Because this religion is founded on idol worship! Traditionally in the Czech religious jargon the strange and silly expression "prayer statueism"

(modlarstvi) is used. For instance almost none of the scholars would use the word "prayer statueism" (modlarstvi) for the ceremony of worshipping the skull of "Saint" Wenceslas (well, if only it is his skull). Therefore almost none of them sees that for the Czech nation Patron Wenceslas is THE IDOL or the "prayer statue"! Therefore he is being worshipped not only by mindless religious fanatics but also by the whole Czech intellectual elite including the members of the official Czech Government. For instance in the newspaper DNES (TODAY) on 27th of September 2003 there was a column by the historian Martin C. Putna with the title "Saint Wenceslas rules us". He writes about the necessity of worshipping this idol of Czech "christian" tradition and he points out the fact that according to a decree by the King Charles IV., Prince Wenceslas is the "REX PERPETUUS" (in Latin), which means the "Eternal King". This literature historian is a scholar who obviously stands for other cults and idols also, not only for Wenceslas. But he does not care about the fact that the only and true Eternal King is Jesus! (In Czech they say "it is 'PUTNA' to him").

The idol worship of "Saint Wenceslas - the eternal Patron and Ruler of Czech lands" is the CULT. How is it possible that these national morbid witchcraft rituals in the 21st century can never make anybody to think? Maybe it is so that philosophy is built on witchcraft and mythology and suits most people, because they do not bother about the truth. King Charles IV. was just an ordinary superstitious "Christian" ruler of his time, who loved occult and magic i.e. astrology, alchemy etc. Unless the Czech nation will wake up into reality and turns to Jesus from the idolatrous "christian" religion and from worshipping its idols, it will stay cursed. Not anywhere ever existed any "Christian" nation according to the Biblical concept of God's sons and daughters "begotten from above" (or born again), immersed into the Sanctifying Anointing Spirit. Being begotten from above is a very personal and intimate experience of each individual who wants to know God the Creator PERSONALLY - it has nothing to do with religious "visiting the church buildings" and hiding in the crowd.

One example of the most horrific cults of this time is the cult of Catholic "mother" Theresa. It is frightening to see how most people love the lie. On one hand, by twisting the story of Biblical Mary, religious philosophers made demonic CULT of the "eternal virgin", even though Mary had to be a virgin (Isa 7:14; Matt 1:20-23) but after giving birth to Jesus she had a blessed married life with Joseph [meaning the 'adding one'] as a MOTHER of James, Joses, Juda and Simon, and several daughters (Matt 13:55-56; Mar 6:3). On the other hand, the same sect made the CULT of the "mother" from a Catholic nun Theresa, who according to their religion must not bare children. On Saturday 18th of October 2003 there was a German documentary broadcasted on the Czech TV Channel 2 (CT2) called "Legacy of Mother Theresa". The whole show was a vehement opposition of Catholic religion against the teaching of the Lord Jesus. The highlight was the last question for her: "Mother, you are well known all over the world, very popular. What does that mean for you?" Her reply was: "It is a sacrifice, but it brings the blessing to our society. I offer it, as I do with every photo they take of me. The purgatory will be empty today. I have a contract with dear God, for every photo you take of me can one poor soul go to heaven! The purgatory will be empty today." ?!!! By this boasting nun Theresa manifested what a proud and arrogant, demon possessed witch she was. In her "House of Death" in India many thousands of people died prematurely and uselessly - it was visited by a number of doctors from the West who claimed that just some antibiotics could be enough for many people to be healed. It is known that the mighty ones of this world were giving yearly tens of millions of dollars to this nun Theresa, which were not used for poor victims of this cruel religion. Even the nun Theresa herself claimed that she is not here to heal this people but to help them to "die with dignity". Nevertheless she herself was being treated in the hospitals for the rich. There is also a certain case known when the 'Mother' Theresa said to one man dying in great pains, "When you suffer, it is God kissing you." He replied in pain, "So let him stop kissing me!" What a satanic mocking to the sufferer! This has nothing in common with Jesus but everything with Satan. Obviously the "House of Death" was used as an effective advertising con to squeeze out money for something else.

The unbiblical satanic doctrine about a "purgatory" also completely despises the sacrifice of the Lord Jesus - the pouring out of his blood ONCE AND FOR ALL, without the need of any other sacrifice. But the arrogance with which this woman lifted herself above Jesus is appalling. She was making light of the truth, therefore made light of herself. No soul can go into heaven without the blood of Jesus because "...without the pouring of the blood there cannot be the release [forgiveness]" (Heb 9:22). This purgatory doctrine is possible only by completely ignoring the Bible truth. This is also one of many proofs of satanic nature of the "christian" religion of the Catholic sect. Therefore their ecumenical humbug is also possible, including the recommendation of Buddhism and similar "churches" - as priests tell their flock to enhance and to enrich their faith. This isn't a joke, but sad reality.

The worst thing of it all is, that for the Czech nation being so ignorant, most other "christian churches" are also responsible. As far as I know, nowhere on TV nor Radio Broadcasts, neither in the newspapers or magazines do these other "churches" give any warning about lying doctrines of this religion. On the contrary, they have numerous programs together - for instance on channel CT 1 there is weekly "Christian Magazine" and "Ways of Faith" - in the style "all roads lead to Rome" (BUT NONE OF THESE LEAD TO HEAVEN!). This includes so called "Charismatic Catholics" - if they pray to the "Virgin Mary" (which they all do, that is why they are Catholics), they pray to Satan. "But the maturing of the mandate is love from a pure heart and from a good conscience and nonhypocritical faith, which some twisted into useless explaining - wanting to be teachers of the law, they do not understand neither what they explain neither anything concerning some things through which they assure (I.Tim 1:5-7). Many such "christians" from other churches told me, "You see, Mother Theresa has the 'fruit of the Spirit' so how can you say that she is not born again?!" Well, Paul wrote in the Sanctifying Spirit, "And when I crumble all my property to the poor and when I give my body to burn, but do not hold love I do not benefit" (I.Cor 13:3). Jesus explained, "The one holding my commandments and watches them - he is the one loving me! But the one loving me will be loved under my father, and I will love him and I will illuminate myself to him" (John 14:21). Jesus also said for all who believed into him, "...When you will stay in my word truly you are my disciples and you shall know the truth and the truth will make you unrestrained" (John 8:30-31). But overwhelming majority of "christians" are ignorant of the Word of God - the Bible. "Christian" nun Theresa was a prime example. She, but for instance also the Czech "christians" from "other churches" never emphasize the NECESSITY of being "begotten from above" (born again) and of the immersion - despite the fact that Jesus commanded it. All preach in the unity of the religion - "Jesus will save you", "Jesus loves you", "believe in Christ", "become a Christian", but everyone of them avoids the commandment of the truth, "You must be begotten from above!" (John 3:7). The Christian phrase "Jesus loves you" does not save anybody, unless he is told that he must DO something and - and unless he does it, cannot be saved (see Acts 10:5-6+47-48). In Australia, I myself was shocked to hear for the first time in my life the message: "You must be born again!" In Czechoslovakia, I have never heard anything like it from anybody, and because the hypocrisy of the christian religion is repulsive to the ordinary man, I was never really interested in the person of Jesus.

80 years old Tafa Alabi is rejoicing from seeing again after 5 years of blindness - Jesus healed him through the ministry of God's born again son Reinhard Bonnke. How useful is the work of son's faith!

In the Catholic culture you have sculptures of DEAD body of Jesus hanging on the cross everywhere: in the streets of cities and villages; alongside the roads between cities and villages, on every dirt track in the fields; in church buildings and in the private houses too. Catholics have this DEAD body of Jesus as FETISH. In the entry of Catholic church buildings there hangs the DEAD body of Jesus over the "holy water". Everybody touches the toes of its feet, dips the fingertips in the "holy water" and superstitiously makes sign of the cross over him(her)self with the fingertips which touched the feet of the DEAD body sculpture. This is witchcraft!

So how can you ever have the reality, that He lives, much less think that He can help you? You NEVER think that way! That is why grannys are offended when you tell them, that Jesus can heal. In their thinking it is the "Virgin Mary" who heals! "Mother of God" is the one with power to heal, NOT Jesus! He's DEAD, hanging on the cross! In the "Easter" rituals there is the cross with the DEAD body of Jesus wrapped in violet sheet until after the Resurrection Sunday. After the Mass rituals there comes off the sheet, and Jesus hangs there DEAD AGAIN for the whole year. That is why in Catholic culture you cannot hear the term "born again", when Jesus is presented as DEAD AGAIN on the cross, and Catholics have a myth saying, that "Mother of God" or "Virgin Mary" ascended to heaven in her body without dying. That is also why the Mary figure is always prominent on all Catholic paintings, being more important to them than Jesus. In most cases, Jesus is presented as a little naked child in the all powerful mother's arms.

The uselessness of such "christian" culture drives the people into the budhism, astrology, numerology, yoga, karate, kung-fu, shamanism, naturalistic healing and other satanic traps. In the Czech nation we are witnesses of mad escalation of all these kinds of the religious teachings of the 'New Age' just because of the demon of philosophy, whom the Czechs truly adore more and more, and naturally are proud of.

A popular square in Vatican, where people often gather to worship a proud man in a vehemently useless religion

More than 300 000 people at the time gathered to hear the Good Message of the Anointing Jesus in Ilesa, Nigeria. Many were healed from various sicknesses, many were delivered from demons, many were born again. Through the ministry of Reinhard Bonnke the Lord Jesus saves millions of people yearly. In the year 2002 alone there were saved more than 9 000 000. These are the results of the works of faith of a "weak man" - see Acts 4:9.

On the other hand the Bible teaches that believers, who are "begotten from above", should mature in usefulness by the works of faith (James 2:20-24). Just as John and Petr made the lame man to stand on his legs in the name of Jesus, thus our faith should work also (Acts 3:6-9). We do the works of faith=the works of goodness in the name of Jesus so the father is glorified in the son, "Amen, amen I explain to you: the one believing into me, the works that I do he will do also and greater than these he will do, for I go through to my father and whatever you ask in my name, that will I do that the father may be glorified in the son. When you ask anything in my name, I will do it!" (John 14:12-14). Peter, being filled by the sanctifying spirit, proclaimed, "Rulers of the people and elders of Israel, if we are investigated OVER the good works of a weak man, in which was this one saved, be it known to all of you and to all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus the Anointing One, the Nazarene whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, in this one is he standing healthy in your sight! " (Acts 4:8-10). It is also written: "Love is patient, USEFUL, ..." (I.Cor 13:4). This word "useful" (Strong's 5541) is being presented as "kind" but it is NOT so. Its root is the Greek word meaning "hand" (Strong's 5495). Religion is USELESS - but God called His born again sons and daughters to do works of faith, for without them the faith is DEAD (Jas 2:17-26). Also God's children are to be useful as He is useful. "See therefore, usefulness and severity of Go: truly severity over those fallen, but usefulness over you - when you stay over usefulness, otherwise you will be cut off too!" (Rom 11:22) This word usefulness is Strong's 5544 - NOT some philosophical "kindness"!

But for such things it is necessary to occupy this land again, and this is a responsibility of each believer who is "begotten from above" - man and woman alike. For this reason even Jesus treaded the land of Israel by the palms (or 'soles' if you wish) of his feet in the authority of the Abraham's covenant for three and a half years. For the same reason God the Creator of heavens and earth calls all true believers to come out from the religion into the FAMILY by being "begotten from above", "Do not become yoked differently with unbelievers ... For what is the placing together of the sanctuary of God amidst the idols? Because you are the sanctuary of the living God according to as God said, that: I will dwell in them and walk in them, and I will be their God and they will be my people. Through this you go out from their midst and border yourselves away [by faith of the son], explains the Lord, and do not touch the filthy and I will receive you into myself and I will be God into you and you will be sons and daughters into me, explains the Lord Almighty" (II.Cor 6:14,16-18; see Acts 17:31).

According to the teaching of the Bible, man is influenced by the people he is in contact with - unless he preaches the Good Message to the unbelieving ones. I've personally read and heard many testimonies of people, who after being "begotten from above" through the Lord Jesus, left the Mormon sect, "Jehovah Witnesses" or Catholicism, even other religious groups or organizations. Neither one of them had any commandment from the Lord Jesus to stay there after their "new birth". If anybody stays where he was before the deliverance, his heart will inevitably returns into the mud in which he wallowed before (see II Pet 2:22). The verses above are quite clear and a people "begotten from above" must build themselves up in the truth to mature. Nevertheless, when they do not become the disciples of Jesus and do not stay in his Word, they cannot know the truth and it will not make them unrestrained (John 8:31-32).

At the beginning of this issue I mentioned the saying to Abraham by YHWH to walk and occupy the land which he gave to him and to his seed. Here is the continuation, "Every place whereon the palms of your feet shall tread shall be yours..." (Deut 11:24). "Every place that the palm of your foot shall tread, that have I given you as I explained to Moses...And Moses swore on that day, saying, Surely the land whereon your feet have trodden shall be your inheritance, and your sons' as long as you are concealing, because you were fully after YHWH my elohiyim" (Josh 1:3, 14:9).

If we believe the Bible is true we must take it as such and obey it. The Lord longs after the salvation of the people and in faith we are to co-work with Him in it. For us, begotten from above, it is written, "..over this rock I will build my congregation of those called out and the gates of hades will not be strong by it!" (Matt 16:18). The gates of hades or hell are the gates in every area where the people are imprisoned against the God's truth by the religion of traditions, and therefore against the salvation in Jesus. The congregation of those called out [ecclesia] should open them in the name of Jesus, so these people can know the light of the Word of God and decide to be begotten from above in Jesus. Every generation must occupy the land again in the name of Jesus for the Kingdom of God. Therefore we do these works of faith - in the crusades around Morava so the Lord Jesus can pour out His Sanctifying Spirit for His people, so His Good Message could bring the fruit through the Moravian Pentecost. But without the boldness of saying of the truth and love of the truth it will not be possible. Therefore it is necessary to speak the truth to all, to the believers in Jesus in the first place. There must be AWAKENING first in the congregation of those called out, so the REVIVAL can come through them for those who are DEAD in the transgressions and sins, who are to be delivered from the slavery under the ruler of the authority of the air - under the spirit now working in the sons of the unpersuadableness (see Eph 2:1-2).

In Nigeria and other places the Lord Jesus makes such "mega" actions and miracles because Reinhard Bonnke obeyed Him, and for many years he walked, journeyed and preached the Good Message in Africa, but he also had prayer co-workers who prepared this God's harvest in prayers and also in journeys across this land. Moreover for many years there are also hundreds of thousands of born again believers in the continent of Africa, who walk over this land and take it over in the name of Jesus by the "palms of their feet" as the true seed of Abraham.

Here is the prohecy for encouraging and admonishing of all true believing ones in Jesus to wake them up from the "christian" religion and to DO God's plan:

>>>Prepare. Prepare for the season of the outpouring . For truly I say to you that where the tap has trickled and there has not been even water to fill a cup, so in this endtime season you shall see across all the nations of the Earth the taps of evangelism and resources turned on. And the waters of living water shall stream and pour forth across communities, across nations, across continents that there will not even be enough room to contain the outpouring as it flows.

Ha! says the Lord. For surely in this age and in this season, My prophets are about to do some strange and some extraordinary things.

Yes, prepare. Prepare yourself for the extraordinary for I am raising up a people, I am raising up a company of prophets who will act as an abrasion to the body of Christ, for surely there are many of My servants who will even question and wonder at the manner in which My prophets have been called to walk in these days. For I am raising My prophets from the East and from the West, from the South and from the North. And not many are known and not many are well versed. But they are well versed in Me, says the Lord.

For these ones, yes these ones, yes, their faces are set like flint. They will not heed the voice or the system or the politics and manipulations of man or minister. They shall one by one come forth in this time. And they shall not need or require man's favour or reward, for they are a strange and wonderful breed dedicated and holy to the Lord. For they are neither bribable nor corruptible. For their master is neither mammon nor fame, nor favour. But their master is the mighty Holy One of Israel. And so these ones shall arise, and many many of My ministers shall watch and stand ambivalent. And they shall come forth with a fierce countenance for they do not listen to the voice of man. For they have been trained in the desert place and the wilderness. For they have been raised on misunderstanding and rejections. For they have walked being despised and passed over and have been measured by the judgements of man. And so it is that they now come forth and shine like gold. They can be bought by no man, no ministry, no pastor nor elder.

For they are Mine, says the Lord. As refined by fire, they hold only to Me. They speak only My words. They do only My deeds. And so it is that first one shall arise, and I shall confirm his words with My hand. And then ten shall arise close behind. And then twenty, and then a hundred, and then a thousand, like fire spreading across My Church.

And they shall raise their voices in judgement against the false systems of My Church. And they shall raise their hand even as Elijah and My signs and My judgements shall come forth.

And so it is that even My leading ministers shall stand back in wonder and receive these as My prophets for surely the fear and conviction of My Father shall fall upon them and they shall know that these are His, His alone. And so My ministers shall take heed. They shall take account of their ways and so it shall be that because of the fierceness of their rising, so My servants shall fall and repent. And so My Church shall turn.

And so because of these mighty unseen ones, I shall stay My judgement. And even as Jonah stayed My hand at Nineveh, so shall My hand be stayed against this disobedient generation of My Church. And so a great outpouring of My mercy shall come forth. Watch well and see this terrible company, for I tell you that even at this hour they rise in your midst. Take care and discern correctly that you may not be found having despised these strange and terrible ones, the prophets of the Most High. <<

These are strong sayings but absolutely necessary because it is the time for Czechs to wake up from their satisfaction with their useless christian religion and finally start to love the truth instead of the lie.
